Practical Nursing

Sheridan's Practical Nursing program is your first step to becoming a Registered Practical Nurse in Ontario.

Prepare for a career in the growing field of health care.

Approved by the College of Nurses of Ontario

Sheridan's four-semester Practical Nursing diploma program is approved (Category 1) by the College of Nurses of Ontario (CNO). When you graduate from this program, you'll be eligible to apply to take the Canadian Practical Nursing Registration Examination (CPNRE). When you've successfully completed the CPNRE, you'll be issued a license to practice as a Registered Practical Nurse in Ontario.

Prepare for a career as a practical nurse

In this program, you'll learn to:

- Help clients with nutrition, elimination, medication, safety, ambulation and hygiene.
- Chart patients' progress and assess their conditions.
- Care for wounds, change dressings and give medication.
- Educate clients and promote health and wellbeing.
- Care for patients through all stages of a disease, including palliative care.

Clinical placements: Get hands-on experience

Hands-on experience is essential to prepare you for a career as a practical nurse. In this program, you'll have clinical placements in long-term care facilities, acute and chronic care hospitals and more — starting in your first semester. In your final semester, you'll participate in a 450-hour clinical placement, gaining on-the-job experience that will boost your resume and build your confidence.
