Learn to teach in multiple contexts

In Sheridan's Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL Plus) program, you'll develop a strong skill set that allows you to teach English to second-language learners in a variety of classroom settings and contexts, including international students in Canada and newcomers to Canada. TESL Canada Teacher Training Program Recognition is in progress.

Get practical experience

This program's two practicum terms give you the opportunity to apply your classroom learning in various teaching situations. You may teach ESL students at Sheridan, newcomers to Canada through our LINC (Language Instruction for Newcomers to Canada) program or students off-campus.

CELTA-connected faculty

All of our professors in this program are qualified CELTA (Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults) trainers, and one professor is also a CELTA examiner. This ensures that the education you receive in the TESOL Plus program meets the industry's rigorous standards. Our application for accreditation through TESL Ontario is also in progress.
